
MINERAL KING PRESERVATION SOCIETY

FIFTH ANNUAL "PICNIC IN THE PARK"

DATE: SATURDAY, JULY 20, 1991

TIME: 12:30 P.M.

PLACE: Go to the end of the Mineral King Road, then west of the parking lot, following the road to the old Sunny Point Campground to the meadow, looking up to the Empire Mines and Peaks.

BRING: Picnic lunch, folding chair or blanket.

A shaded area will be provided, along with cookies and lemonade.

PROGRAM: JOHN CROWLEY of Visalia, area citrus rancher, descendant of one of the original families in Mineral King, whose great-grandfather and grandfather helped build the road to Mineral King, will tell the history of the Empire Mine and how the family acquired the northern extension of the Empire Mine.

DARREL TOMER from Apple Valley, retired high school teacher and professional speelunker extraordinaire, caretaker of a mine at the present time, will tell about "speelunking" and his trip down into the Empire Mine many years ago with Jim Parks of Mineral King and daughter Suzie.

COME ONE, COME ALL!

IT SHOULD BE AN INTERESTING PROGRAM

AND A WONDERFUL DAY!
